[Price Ten-pence Halfpenny.]

We acknowledge, with every Impreſſion of the moſt fervent Thankfulneſs, the Goodneſs of Divine Providence in thus graciouſly reſtoring your Majeſty to the Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects, and humbly ſupplicate that the Continuance of your Majeſty's Health may long ſecure to us the full Poſſeſſion of thoſe Bleſſings which, under your Majeſty's Government, we derive from the unimpaired Energy of our excellent Conſtitution.

By Order of the General Meeting,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and of a very numerous and moſt reſpectable Body of Gentlemen aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Thetford the 19th of March, 1789.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, with Hearts filled with Joy, to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late Illneſs; an Event which, at the ſame Inſtant, hath diſſipated the general Gloom which had pervaded all Ranks of People, and hath alſo reſtored Energy to our Laws, and Activity to the various Branches of the Legiſlature of theſe Kingdoms.

You have taſted of the bitter Cup of Adverſity, Sire! on a ſick Bed undiſmayed; a ſalutary Draught to truly-great Men offered by Heaven to it's Favourites as a Trial of their Conſtancy and Reſignation to it's immutable Decrees. May you henceforward (and it is the ſincere Wiſh of our Hearts) continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health during a Series of happy Years: Your ſerious Hours employed (as heretofore) in promoting the Welfare of your Subjects, and in planning wiſe Regulations for the general Proſperity of the Realm. May your domeſtick Occupations be enlivened by the affectionate Endearments of your beloved Conſort, our Gracious Queen! The Example and Ornament of her Sex, ſurrounded by a ſplendid Train of Princes, your joint Offspring, whoſe Virtues and eminent Qualities juſtly entitle them to the Applauſe and Admiration of the Britiſh Nation; and when it ſhall pleaſe the Divine Providence to call you hence, after a long and glorious Reign, may you enjoy that Beatitude which is reſerved for thoſe who, in exalted Stations, have, like your Majeſty, paſſed their Lives in uninterrupted Exertions for the Benefit of thoſe entruſted to their Care.

[Delivered by the Honourable Henry Hobart, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the City of Norwich.]

Fully ſenſible of the Importance of a Life, during which all the Bleſſings of a mild and equal Government have been uniformly enjoyed by every Deſcription of your Majeſty's Subjects, we cannot but ardently rejoice, that the Providence of God has averted a Calamity which threatened the Security of our publick Happineſs; and we at the ſame Time feel the moſt cordial Satisfaction in reflecting, that the ſame Event which aſſures to your Subjects the Stability of their national Welfare, reſtores your Majeſty to the Poſſeſſion of that domeſtick Felicity, to which your Majeſty's many private and perſonal Virtues have given you ſo diſtinguiſhed a Title.

That your Majeſty's publick Conduct may long continue to protect, and that your private Conduct may long continue to adorn this Country, is the ardent prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

[Delivered by Sir William Wynne, Dean of the Arches, &c.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

WE, your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery.

We bleſs the Divine Providence for giving Succeſs to the Means made Uſe of to effect this happy Event; happy to our Gracious Queen and Royal Family: Happy to a grateful and affectionate People: Happy to every Foreign State in Alliance with theſe Kingdoms.

The Influence of your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government extends beyond your own Dominions, and is of powerful Effect to conciliate the Animoſities of contending Nations.

May the ſame Providence, which hath hitherto guided and protected your Sacred Majeſty, continue its Bleſſings on your Health and Government. Long may you reign over an obedient and faithful People, ſtudious to demonſtrate their Zeal and Attachment to their Sovereign, in the ſteady Support of a glorious Conſtitution, revered by all wiſe and good Subjects, who are anxious for the Preſervation of their Monarch's Life, and for the perſonal Exerciſe of His Power, and firm in a manly Defence of the eſtabliſhed Government of this Country.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council aſſembled, impreſſed with a lively Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Care for all your loving Subjects, cannot fail to offer up our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty for your Majeſty's Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition. That you are, through His gracious Mercy, enabled to reſume the Reins of Government, under which we have ever been ſo mildly and auſpiciouſly protected, is an Event which muſt excite in every Heart both Joy and Gratitude; in Proportion to the Concern we felt at your Affliction, the greater our Joy is at your happy Reſtoration. And, without Flattery, or the Semblance of it, we may venture to pronounce, that not only in this Nation, but in every other to which your Majeſty's Name hath extended, Joy and Congratulation will univerſally prevail The many and repeated Bleſſings we have enjoyed ſince your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne lead us beyond Hope; they lead us to a full Aſſurance (under God's Providence) of a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings to the End of your Reign. We preſume too, with the moſt fervent Reſpect, to congratulate our moſt Gracious Queen, and your Royal Houſe, on this important Occaſion; aſſuring them, that our Hearts were overwhelmed with Sorrow at their unhappy and afflicted Situation. May the King of Kings continue to your Majeſty the Eſtabliſhment of Health, the Love of your Subjects, and the Enjoyment of all temporal Bleſſings; and may theſe Bleſſings be for ever perpetuated to your Illuſtrious Family.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a loyal and affectionate People, the Sovereign and the Subjects mutually repoſing Confidence in each other.

We are deſirous of teſtifying to your Majeſty, that, deeply as we have at all Times been impreſſed with a Senſe of the manifold Advantages enjoyed under your paternal Government, theſe have been ſtill more thoroughly brought Home to our Breaſts, by the awful Diſpenſation of Providence, which alarmed the Empire for your Royal Life and Safety. And thus taught, we now enter your Majeſty's Preſence with Sentiments of increaſing Veneration, ſtill more attached (if poſſible) to your Perſon, and more devoted to your Service.

Nor have we, at this diſtreſſing Conjuncture, been intereſted only for ourſelves. While we deeply felt our own Calamity, we lamented and ſympathiſed with the Affliction of your Gracious Conſort, the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty, and the other Members of the Royal Family. And, as we humbly joined in the Prayers of thoſe Auguſt Perſons for the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, ſo now, when Heaven has heard thoſe Prayers, we preſume to join in their Tribute of Gratitude to the Almighty, who hath reſtored Comfort and Happineſs to the Royal Houſe, and to theſe Kingdoms a Sovereign, diſtinguiſhed as the Father and Guardian of His People.

We thank God for preſerving your Majeſty's valuable Life, and pray He may grant your Majeſty a long Continuance of Health and Happineſs, as the greateſt Bleſſing to your faithful Subjects.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that theſe are the ſincere Wiſhes of this populous and loyal County, faithfully attached to and anxious for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Royal Family.

We congratulate your Majeſty, that with returning Health you receive your Kingdoms in Safety, Proſperity and Peace.

We congratulate your Majeſty, that the Proſpect is now reſtored to your Dominions of long enjoying a Government, which, for Nine and Twenty Years, has conferred on them every Bleſſing that the Father of His Country could beſtow.

We congratulate your Majeſty, that, melancholy as the late Proſpect was, it has afforded your Majeſty the ſingular Felicity of knowing with Certainty, that although Adulation ſhall be mute, and Intereſt no more, your Fame and your Virtues are conſigned to the Veneration of Poſterity, in the Gratitude and Loyalty of a great and enlightened People.

And in fine we congratulate your Majeſty on the Glory of having taught the World, that the Crown you wear is ſecured againſt the Calamities of human Life, by the Freedom of that Conſtitution which you have cheriſhed, and by the unalterable Attachment of your faithful Subjects, in whoſe Hearts and Affections you reign.

Indiſpoſition with which you have lately been afflicted.

We cannot but feel ourſelves particularly thankful to the Omnipotent Diſpoſer of all Events for His benign Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs in thus timely liſtening to the ardent Prayers of a free and grateful People, and reſtoring, in perfect Health, to your Royal and Amiable Conſort and Family the beſt of Huſbands and Fathers, and, above all, to a now happy Nation, the beſt of Monarchs.

Animated with a Spirit of Loyalty to your Government, and of Attachment to your Majeſty and the
